A. Review Case #15-12347

1400 block of N. Good, residence, 5/31/15 Sunday 1400 hrs.

The victim was meeting a potential new dog walking/sitter client when suspect dog, Bronco, was released from behind a gate in the residence and charged at the victim. The victim raised her arms to protect her face, and Bronco bit her elbow and thumb. The dog owner provided first aid to the victim at the time of the incident. The victim sought additional medical treatment on 6/1/15 and 6/2/15 for the puncture wounds. The victim then reported the incident to the police on 6/4/15.

B. Review Case #15-13017

700 block of N. Western, front yard, 6/11/15 Thursday 1600 hrs.

The victim, along with other children, was playing with the dog. The victim then got in the dog's face and began yelling at the dog to drop something that was in its mouth, and the dog then bit the victim's lower lip. Victim was taken to the doctor the next day, and incident was reported to police the next day.
