 - A. Review Case #15-17952 (continued from 8/24/15 meeting)

1100 block of Oakton, sidewalk, 8/8/15 Saturday 1944 hrs.

The victim was walking a small dog and her granddaughter when two large Rottweiler dogs charged out from the backyard of a residence. She held the small dog she was walking and attempted to shield her granddaughter from the dogs, and as she attempted to move away from the dogs, one of them bit her finger. She was able to get inside the backdoor of 1035 Oakton and secure the door, and the dogs attempted to come in the home after her. PRFD was called to the scene and treated and released the victim at the scene. It is unclear which dog bit the victim.

- B. Review Case #15-17506

1400 block of S. Ashland, sidewalk, 8/3/15 Monday 1500 hrs.

The victim owner's kids were walking their dog, and the offending dog came out and bit the victim dog on the ears and neck, causing one of the ears to bleed. It is unknown if the victim dog was treated for its injuries.
