III. Action Items

1. Review Case #13-19621

Karl Davies stated that his dog, Gary, has received a lot of obedience training through Alex Brooks. His dog is in good health and is now up to date with licensing. He had a friend, the victim, over to the house and as the victim was leaving, they moved, and in turn, startled the dog. The victim quickly went on the offensive to protect themselves. The bite was a quick bite and release. The victim went to the doctor and did not have to receive stitches.

Mr. Davies was surprised that Gary bit his friend as Gary knows the friend well, but can admit that the dog does, at times, get jumpy.

The Commissioners all agreed that Gary is not at-risk or dangerous and decided to dismiss the case, but warned the owner of the consequences of another bite.
