

Summer 2018 Concerts in the Park

sponsored by the

Park Ridge Fine Arts Society

Friday evenings at 8 pm • Free!

Hodges Park, in front of City Hall, Park Ridge

Five Concerts by the Park Ridge Fine Arts Symphony

Barbara Schubert, Music Director and Conductor

Friday, June 22 – Beethoven and Beyond

Beethoven's exhilarating Symphony No. 7 in A Major and Dvorák's charming Czech Suite open the Park Ridge Fine Arts Symphony's 2018 season of Concerts in the Park.

Friday, June 29 – American the Beautiful

Celebrate the magnificent landscape of American with Grofé's Grand Canyon Suite and works by Aaron Copland and Richard Rodgers.

Friday, July 6 – Spanish Soundscape

Enjoy a "virtual visit" to Sunny Spain through the music of Bizet, Massenet, Fauré, and Rimsky-Korsakov, with his colorful Capriccio Espagnol.

Friday, July 13 – Taste of Tchaikovsky

Selections from Tchaikovsky's exquisite ballet scores, plus his masterful Symphony No. 5 in E minor.

Friday, July 20 – Broadway's Best

Familiar medleys from classic Broadway shows, plus highlights from Hamilton, Chicago, and other recent Broadway hits.

Bonus Concert by the Brian Patti Big Band

Brian Patti, Band Leader

Friday, July 27 – A Tribute to Benny Goodman, the King of Swing

Legendary jazz clarinetist and band leader Benny Goodman had an indelible impact on music history, ushering in the swing era of the 1930's with an array of memorable tunes.

[current as of 3-20-18]