FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Park Ridge Police Arrest Subject for Aggravated Assault and Aggravated Unlawful Use of Weapon

On March 23, 2019 at approximately 2046hrs, Park Ridge Police units were dispatched to the 1500 block of North Dee regarding a male subject armed with a handgun that was chasing another subject on foot. Police units learned that O'Connor, Patrick J, 55 years of age, threatened three people, two of them being family members, with a handgun during a family meeting at the 1500 block of North Dee. Mr. O'Connor came to the meeting armed with a handgun and began threatening others due to a disagreement about the sale of property located at the 1500 block of North Dee. During the course of the assault, one of the family members fled the house and was immediately pursued by Mr. O'Connor with the handgun. Mr. O'Connor was gone from the area when police arrived, however, hours later he was located in the area of Glenview and Dee and taken into custody.

Mr. O'Connor was charged with Aggravated Assault and Aggravated Unlawful Use of Weapon. He will appear in bond court tomorrow.
