Social Security Administration's Acting Regional Commissioner, Phyllis Smith

Social Security is truly something to celebrate. For nearly 8 decades, it has never missed payment. It provides earned benefits to 59 million and keeps 22 million Americans – including 1 million children – out of poverty.

Social Security's guaranteed, inflation-adjusted benefits are critical to retirees, disabled workers, widows and widowers and children. In the 9th Congressional District, over 122,000 of us rely on those benefits.

Congresswoman Jan Schakowsky, Social Security Administration's Acting Regional Commissioner, Phyllis Smith, and others will be here to express our appreciation for Social Security and our commitment to protecting and expanding it for future generations and learn what's new from SSA. In addition, Social Security Administration staff will be on-hand to answer questions and help with any Social Security problems you may have. Refreshments will be served.
